

EXCLUSIVE JOE GLOW TECHNOLOGY

Joe Glow Glowing Glass products were designed to meet the growing demand for glass building materials in residential and commercial markets. Joe Glow Glowing Glass uses a proprietary fusion of custom manufactured sheet glass and all-natural photo-luminescent minerals called Strontium Aluminate. These rare earth minerals are non-toxic and non-radioactive and bond to any type of glass. When these minerals are exposed to ambient light, they store the photons from the light. This acts as a battery as it stores energy and releases it when the light source is removed.

Joe Glow has mastered the industry of photo-luminescence and provides top-quality products built with longevity and durability in mind. Joe Glow Glowing Glass products are beautifully finished with beveled edges and polish for a premium, hand-crafted look.
